

Paid Internship Position

Atlas Insight is a highly respected and well-known Site Selection/Credits & Incentives consulting firm. We are currently seeking a paid Intern to help conduct research related to income tax credits, government incentives, community-based demographic analysis as well as to help implement special projects related to the ongoing performance of the business. The position is available immediately, will require approximately 15-20 hours per week, will pay $15-18/hour commensurate upon candidate qualifications, and will last for up to six months.

This position will offer the Intern the ability to gain knowledge in the field of Site Selection and tax credit and Economic Development incentives. The intern candidate must have completed adequate credits to be considered a Junior or Senior and be working towards at least a Bachelor's degree or have recently received a Bachelor's degree. Additionally, preference will be given to candidates who can demonstrate at least a 3.0 GPA in either their overall studies or their major.

The Intern will develop experience in domestic credits and incentives programs for private, for-profit businesses at the federal, state, and local level. Some of the tasks that the Intern will perform include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Researching governmental incentive programs related to a project
- Helping to organize and summarize findings in polished client deliverable formats
- Assisting in the completion of incentive applications and tax credit forms
- Assisting with geo-variable location analyses
- Researching for and entering information into data bases
- Assisting with special projects related to the ongoing performance of the business

It is preferred that the Intern candidate be experienced with data analysis and manipulation, mostly through Excel. Although the Intern will work closely with the team, he/she must also be able to manage work in an independent virtual work environment. The majority of the Atlas Insight team is located in Central NJ and it is expected that the Intern will meet at least once a week for several hours at an agreeable location in Central NJ location with various team members to gain one-on-one team experience and knowledge of our field. The internship has the potential to lead to an offer for full-time employment with the company upon graduation.
